WORSHIPPING GOD - GROWING IN FAITH - WORKING IN COMMUNITY

MESSAGE FROM REVD ANN

Dear All

COMMUNION SERVICES IN CHURCH. Yes, the great news is that we are planning to have Communion Services in church sometime in August. We'll be carefully following the current Government and church guidelines about church services generally and about communion in particular which would be bread/wafers only. For example, there will be strict social distancing, no procession or servers and the only person handling the wafers will be the priest after thoroughly washing and sanitising hands. The bread/wafers will remain covered during the service to prevent the priest breathing on them while speaking and the priest will wear a mask while handing them out. It would be a simple said service possibly with recorded music as we are not allowed to sing.

In order to work out how to safely seat people and manage the service it would really helpful if you could let me, Liz or Peter Rigby know by email or phone if you would like to come to a communion service in church so that we have some idea of the numbers that might be involved and can plan. (I know some people who are vulnerable or who have family that are vulnerable don't feel comfortable coming just yet).

The churchwardens from the three parishes and ministry team are having a zoom conference at lunchtime on Monday 27th so it would be brilliant if you could possibly let us know before then.

In this week's gospel reading Jesus says God's kingdom is like a mustard seed – the tiniest of the seeds – but it grows into a plant big enough for birds to nest in its branches so I thought you'd might like to see this picture of mustard plants in Israel. The problems in our country, our world can seem so huge that they can overwhelm us with depression or helplessness so we think "what on earth can I do, what difference can I make after all" But the ongoing miracle of abundant life growing from tiny beginnings in God's world all around us in our gardens and countryside reminds us that, that surprising things can happen from small beginnings.

Not everyone is called to start huge projects - perhaps that's not our particular calling. But what we can do is to work with Jesus Christ to plant little seeds of goodness, generosity, love, forgiveness peace and justice and keep trying to find small ways of showing our faith, our belief in Jesus to others. Each act of love and faith is a foothold of God's kingdom.

We can't save the world – that's Christ's job - but in and through him we can make a difference in a small part of it. Through him the seeds we plant of love and faith hope and forgiveness, kindness and generosity, courage and truth can grow and blossom to bring new hope and life into this world just as the flowers we plant bring beauty and life to our gardens.

With love and prayer, Ann

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK : GREAT EXPECTATIONS

As we look forward to our new incumbent coming, a very appropriate thought from John Stringer.

Some of you will know that in the course of my twenty-five-year teaching career, before I became a writer, I was the Head Teacher of a Church of England school in Coventry. Although this post led indirectly to a change of direction for me, it was a huge mistake. The school was large, and well-established. It served a demanding area and had a long-serving staff; the previous Head had been in post for decades. I was appointed at the age of 32; most of the staff were older than me. For a number of reasons, I found myself unprepared and unwelcome. Determined to make a success of the job, I worked on for nine years. I have never felt so alone.

My appointment there was, I believe, intended to change and update the school. It was some years later that I read an article called 'The Myth of the Hero-Innovator'. It was illustrated with a knight in shining armour. Put simply, the article stated that large organisations cannot be changed by single individuals. Without support, and all alone, the 'shining knight' is doomed to fail.

I hardly need to say any more. You will know what follows. Our churches have the good fortune of a new, committed and devoted minister on his way. He will have the support of his wife and family. But without the support of all of us, he cannot take our three churches forward.

In a sense, his arrival will be a huge relief to those – chiefly our churchwardens – who have borne the burden over the past year. They will know that this is no time to let up; but neither must the rest of us. We shall have expectations. Given our diverse congregations, the expectations we have will differ widely. Not all of us will be completely satisfied. There will be changes; but there will also be continuity.

Facing the structural challenges of our three church buildings will be demanding in itself. Meeting the diversity in our services and practices will call for great patience and understanding. But without our support and encouragement, no 'hero-innovator' can wholly succeed. Let's welcome our new minister whole-heartedly and count our blessings.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Lord Jesus Christ,
friend of the friendless,
helper of the poor,
healer of the sick,
whose life was spent in doing good;
help me to follow in thy footsteps.
Make me strong to do right,
gentle with the weak,
and kind to all who are in sorrow
that I may be like thee, my Lord and Master.

BLESSING

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted;
support the weak
help the afflicted;
honour everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy spirit.
And may the blessing of Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be among you and all those you love,
now and always. Amen

REMEMBERING BILL & MORRIS

In recent weeks, Harbury has lost two long-standing residents, Bill Middleton & Morris Bristow.

As we all know, Bill was synonymous with every aspect of Harbury life, giving up his time and of himself with unassuming generosity. A true gentleman, he touched many lives with acts of quiet kindness. He will be much missed.

Morris will be known to many for his artistic talents, his active membership of the horticultural society and for his devotion to his family. Latterly he enjoyed attending Pleasant Pastimes and the MeetingPoint lunches when it was a pleasure to hear stories of his professional life.

We remember them both with gratitude, and send our thoughts and sympathy to their families and friends.

Fliss Harris
