MESSAGE FROM REVD ANN

Dear All,

Twenty-one of us met for coffee on Thursday at the Crown and were very well looked after. We were given the whole of the two main rooms on spaced out tables. It was a lovely atmosphere and we had such fun chatting together. Many many thanks to John and Amanda for hosting us so well!!

Some of you asked if we can do it again – well, as I left Amanda said “Do you want to make it a monthly get-together?” I said I thought that would be lovely so we just need to fix a date if you think it a good idea!!

I was delighted to meet Julie Bathelor and the family in the Crown on Sunday. Julie and Amy were very relieved that Amy now has a place in Southam College (Jamie already had a place.) Both children are looking forward to starting there. Julie wanted to thank everyone for their prayers.

Looking forward to sharing communion with you again this Sunday – Ladbroke 9am, Harbury 10:30am.

With love and prayer Ann

HOME COMMUNION : I am allowed to bring Holy Communion (bread only) to any of you in your homes carefully following all the sanitising and social distancing procedures. If you would like to have Home Communion, or know anyone who would like Home Communion, or just want to know about the safety procedures, do please ring me on 613696 - Ann.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A driver was making good progress along a country road until he came up behind another car, driving considerably slower. The bends in the road made overtaking difficult and he became increasingly frustrated as he got held up by the “slow driver” in front until he finally got past.

A few minutes later, a much faster driver came up behind him, tailgating and clearly in a hurry. He had the same difficulty as our first driver had had, before finally getting past. “Road hog” complained driver one.

We all have a tendency to judge people by our own standards and some can be very intolerant of those who dare to have a different view on all manner of things, from the speed at which we drive to political opinions.

Within the Church, there are also many things that we can disagree on. What type of hymns to sing, (when we are allowed to again), with what sort of accompaniment? Which version of the Lord’s Prayer? These are not matters of right and wrong but are sometimes capable of generating an awful lot of heat.

Today’s New Testament reading is from Romans 14. At that time, the arguments were over whether it was acceptable to eat meat (because it may have been sacrificed to idols, v.2) and about whether Christians should continue to observe the Sabbath (v.5). Arguments about vegetarianism and Lord’s Day Observance go back a long way! Paul’s answer has three parts:

- We should make up our own minds about such issues (v.5)
- We should not argue about each other’s personal opinions, particularly with those who are “weak in faith” (v.1)
- We should not pass judgement on each other, still less despise those with different opinions from our own (v. 10)

As churches together in Harbury, Ladbroke and Ufton, we are facing changes in the way that we do things. Some are being brought about by Covid, and as Revd. Andy comes as our new Priest in Charge to our new expanded benefice there will probably be more. We shall not all agree about all of them all at once, so as we face them let us all keep St Paul’s guidelines in mind.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Both Harbury and Ladbroke churches are dedicated to All Saints. Saints, of course, are not just those who have saint in front their name but all of us who are called by God to follow him. Paul greets the people of the churches he writes to as saints – “To the Saints who are in Ephesus”. So I did like this thank-you prayer by Janet Morley in “Bread for Tomorrow.” Ann.

For all the saints,
who went before us
who have spoken to our hearts
and touched us with your fire
we praise you, O God.

For all the saints
who live beside us
whose weaknesses and strengths
are woven with our own
we praise you, O God.

For all the saints
who live beyond us
who challenge us
to change the world with them
we praise you, O God.

I would like to add
For all the saints
who show us your love
who stand by us and help us
who light up our days and warm our hearts
we praise you, O God.

BLESSING

(Irish blessing from “All Year Round” British Council of Churches.) It’s long but a beautiful and powerful blessing to give and receive. Celtic Christianity sees God as very much in his creation so it’s God’s blessing falling on you through the sun and the rain.

May the blessing of light be on you Light without you and light within,
May the blessed sunlight shine upon you
and warm your heart
till it glows like a great fire
and strangers may warm themselves
as well as friends

And may the light shine out of the eyes of you,
like a candle set
in the window of a house,
bidding the wanderer to come in
out of the storm.

May the blessing of the rain be on you;
the still sweet rain.
May it fall upon your Spirit
so that little flowers may spring up
and shed their sweetness on the air.

And may the blessing of the great rains be on you,
to beat upon your spirit
and wash it fair and clean:
and leave there a shining pool
where the blue of heaven shines,
and sometimes a star.

May the blessing of the earth be upon you,
the great round earth,
May you ever have a kindly greeting for people
As you’re going along the roads.

And now may the Lord bless you,
and bless you kindly. Amen

Smiling is infectious, you can catch it like the flu,
When someone smiled at me today, I started smiling too.
I passed around a corner, and someone saw my grin,
When he smiled, I realised I had passed it on to him.
I thought about that smile, then realised it's worth,
A single smile, like mine, could travel round the earth.
So, if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected,
let's start an epidemic quick and get the world infected!
