REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY & SERVICES IN CHURCH

Due to the new lockdown it is no longer possible to go ahead with services in church, which sadly includes Remembrance Sunday. Rev Bob and myself are recording a short remembrance service which will be available on-line both on the web site and social media, so look out for the details there.

We will be returning to the practice of opening the church on Wednesdays and Sundays for private prayer, and services will continue on-line and on zoom.

If you know of any individuals who need additional support please do let myself or the wardens know. You may have seen that the Archbishops have encouraged us to use this lockdown to focus on prayer and I hope to be communicating more on this soon.

Rev Andy

A MESSAGE FROM REV ANDY

Well here we are again – in a place I am sure none of us wanted to revisit. Lockdown 2. Banned once more from corporate worship and physical contact with others, although this time schools remain open, which I'm sure is a relief to many hard-pressed parents! Just as our Easter celebrations were badly impacted by the first lockdown, so our remembrance services have had to be cancelled and moved on-line. I hope you will have the opportunity to watch our short service that Rev Bob and myself have published to the web site and social media for this Sunday, and we will be continuing to develop our on-line presence and services over the course of the next month. I'm sure you will have seen that some church leaders have petitioned the government to make corporate worship an exception from the lockdown restrictions, but I have to tell you that I do not share that view. While I understand completely how hard it is for us not to be able to gather together, we have been living under quite severe restrictions for some time now, which includes masks, communion in one kind only, and no singing, and to allow us to continue to meet as an exception to lockdown, while so many others face separation from loved ones, just does not seem right to me. We worship an incarnate God who is present with us and among us, not just within our buildings, and I am convinced that he is working out his purposes among us even in these difficult days. So as Bishop Christopher reminded us in his latest broadcast, we hold on to the light of God in the darkness, and through the churches call to prayer particularly at this time, are reminded of his constant presence with us however dark the days may seem.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord of life, we pray for all who bring your word of life as a light to those in darkness. For those who bring your word of peace to those enslaved by fear. For those who bring your word of love to those in need of comfort. Lord of love and Lord of peace, Lord of resurrection life, be known through our lives and through your power. Amen.

Making Space

Gathering, equipping and encouraging those leading prayer spaces & quiet days

Making Space gatherings are an opportunity to meet with others who share a passion for enabling others to encounter God through prayer spaces and quiet days. They are a place to be encouraged, refreshed and equipped, developing your skills in this area. They are a place to meet and learn from others. They are a place to encounter God together. Our heart for these gatherings is to support you in this valuable ministry.

These events are for anyone interested in this area of ministry, whether you are just beginning to explore it, or have years of experience - you are all welcome. The events you run might be anything from a simple prayer station in your church for visitors to access, to a full day retreat. Bring your enthusiasm and we'll all share our knowledge and creativity and go away encouraged and inspired.

Each gathering will include prayer and reflection, teaching input and time for conversation and sharing ideas to use within your own context. Gatherings will initially take place via Zoom, but we hope to gather in person when it is possible.

Next Making Space gathering:

23 November 2020, 7-8:30pm, on Zoom
Hosted by Jen Stewart and Rev Craig Grocock

BIBLIOS : Given the latest announcement from the Prime Minister, we have decided that we need to close Biblio's Cafe with immediate effect. We are very sorry that people in the village will no longer have a safe space where they can meet their friends to have a drink and a piece of the amazing cakes. We will reopen as soon as the Government decides when it is safe and appropriate for us to do so. Please pass this message to any of your friends and acquaintances who frequent the cafe. Thank you for all your support over the last few months. It is not an easy time for anyone. Take care and stay safe. The Biblio's Cafe Committee

LATEST CHURCH OF ENGLAND COVID-19 UPDATES

The Church of England website has a dedicated page for the latest national requirements and guidance...

<https://www.churchofengland.org/more/media-centre/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance-churches>

Church of England updated two FAQs:

· Advice on NHS Test and Trace in the What to do in the event of a local outbreak section

· What are the first steps in the event of a local outbreak? in the What to do in the event of a local outbreak section

"Following the announcement on Monday October 12 of a new three-tier risk alert system for COVID-19, we understand that Places of Worship can remain open at all Tiers – although at the 'high' and 'very high' Tiers there should be no mixing between households.

This recognises the important role churches and other places of worship continue to play in serving their communities and providing vital comfort and support to people amid very difficult times.

However, we fully appreciate the scale of the threat from COVID-19 and recognise the vigilance that places of worship will need to continue to practice in order to minimise the possibility of spread of the virus.

We will study Government detailed Government guidance when it is available and amend our advice as necessary."
