MESSAGE FROM REV ANDY

I wonder if you managed to take advantage of the wonderful weather we have had recently – I actually managed to get out on my motorbike for the first time since I moved here for a run over to Ufton church, and from there to Radford and back. It was marvellous. We also had a barbeque with friends in the garden, and we look forward to meeting up with some of Julies family this afternoon, now that we are allowed at least some measure of freedom. It felt a bit like a heavy weight being lifted off our shoulders, and we look forward to a gradual return to normality over the next few months. And that feeling of brighter days and new hope tie in very well to our Easter celebrations. The death and resurrection of Jesus was a unique event which resonated across the entire Universe, as God's plan to heal and restore all of creation came to its fulfilment. The evil that had corrupted what God originally made to be perfect has been defeated, light has dispelled the darkness, and everything is being remade. Sin and death are no longer the masters of humanity, as Jesus victory on the cross has shattered their hold on us. Perhaps this year we can all reflect on our experiences of the pandemic – the loss, the unexpected turmoil, the challenge to our view of the world, other people, and our priorities in life. As three churches we will be taking time out to assess what we need to hold on to, what new things we can build on, and what we need to let go of in the years to come. Our vision day is now booked for Saturday 10th July at Radford Semele, so book this in your diaries, and we will also join together for prayer prior to this date, as we look to God for his direction and inspiration. Words from the Book of Revelation come to mind, "Behold, I am making all things new." Perhaps now more than ever, we are in a time when things are being made new, in our nation, in our communities, in our churches, and in our hearts.

EASTER PRAYER

Loving Lord we thank you that Easter is not about a people, but all people, that your love and your Salvation are for all who confess with voices, hearts and lives that the tomb is empty because Jesus is risen, that we might know forgiveness, that lives might be reborn and your name glorified now and for eternity.

In our year's mind we remember and give thanks for the lives of:-

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK :

These names are printed on the weekly pew sheet, and are read out during our church & on-line services each Sunday, which is, of course, visible to those who are not necessarily members of our congregations. If anyone would like to be included on this list (full name or just Christian name) please let Rev Andy (714295) or Fliss Harris (612395) know. If you are putting a name down on behalf of someone it is imperative that you have their consent to do so. Also, if anyone does feel uncomfortable about their name being read out during our on-line services, then do please let us know and we will remove the name.

TODAY'S BIBLE READINGS

FIRST READING : Acts 10:34-43

10:34 Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality,
10:35 but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.
10:36 You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all.
10:37 That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced:
10:38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.
10:39 We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree;
10:40 but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear,
10:41 not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
10:42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.
10:43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

SECOND READING : Mark 16: 1-8

16:1 When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.
16:2 And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb.
16:3 They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"
16:4 When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back.
16:5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.
16:6 But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him.
16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you."
16:8 So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to any one, for they were afraid.
