MESSAGE FROM REV ANDY

This coming week I will be taking a retreat – something vicars are recommended to do regularly, and which I have always found valuable. I am grateful to the parishes and diocese who enable me to do this and help to fund it. Taking a retreat is something I have always found valuable, and I thought I might explain why. Firstly it is an opportunity to spend time to listen to God, to have some space to reflect, to pray, and to open myself to what he wants to say and do, this often includes some reading, which I sometimes have trouble fitting in to a busy parish. Secondly it is an opportunity to be refreshed and to unwind from the many pressures vicars face – that opportunity to relax and recharge the batteries is a vital part of an effective retreat for me. It also takes me out of my normal context, and the many things that surround me and need my attention. In the gospels we see Jesus taking time out from his ministry, and he is careful to encourage the disciples to follow his example, so we follow in his footsteps today. After some exploration I found the place which fit my needs perfectly and that is a Christian hotel in Grange Over Sands called Thornleigh, which hosts many varied events and group weeks as well as individual retreats – one thing I always find is that I never know what will be going on there alongside my personal retreat, and I have met many fascinating people during my time there. The staff are brilliant, the food excellent, and the situation at the edge of Morecambe bay is wonderful. It is a real privilege to be able to take time out there. If you want to check out their events diary and availability do browse their website:

<https://www.thornleigh.org/>

I have asked Fliss to provide the pewsheet article during my absence, and I look forward to what she has to contribute. I would be very happy to chat to anyone about my experience of retreats and why I feel they are valuable for anyone, not just the clergy.

Please remember in your prayers this week:-

Keith Dormer, Jeff, Chris, Caroline, Tom, Karen, Nora, John, Jean, Jacqui, Peter, Emma Paine, Eveline Tennant, Andy Lewin, Tom Kelly, John Quinn, Lee & Baby Samuel Jeffrey Moore.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK :

These names are printed on the weekly pew sheet, and are read out during our church & on-line services each Sunday, which is, of course, visible to those who are not necessarily members of our congregations. If anyone would like to be included on this list (full name or just Christian name) please let Rev Andy (714295) or Fliss Harris (612395) know. If you are putting a name down on behalf of someone it is imperative that you have their consent to do so. Also, if anyone does feel uncomfortable about their name being read out during our on-line services, then do please let us know and we will remove the name.

VISION DAY FOR HARBURY, LADBROKE & UFTON

Saturday, 18th September 2021 10am—4pm at Radford Semele

We would be delighted if members of all three churches would join us for the day to explore what God's leading is on what we hold on to and what the future may hold. Rev Steve Tilley will be our facilitator for the day. Bring your own lunch; refreshments will be provided at the beginning and end of the day.

TODAY'S BIBLE READINGS

FIRST READING : 2 Samuel 6.1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. 2 David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. 3 They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart 4 with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. 5 David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals

12 It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; 13 and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. 14 David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. 15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

17 They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord. 18 When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, 19 and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

SECOND READING : Mark 6:14-29

14 King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' 15 But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' 16 But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.'

17 For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. 18 For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' 19 And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, 20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. 21 But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. 22 When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' 23 And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' 24 She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' 25 Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' 26 The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. 27 Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb
