REFLECTION FROM THE RECTORY

Happy Easter! Some light-hearted reflections from churches across the communion:

1. The "Floral Finesse"

You may notice that the chancel looks less like a church and more like a botanical garden on steroids. If you are sitting in the front three rows and suffer from hayfever, we wish you godspeed. If you disappear behind a particularly large fern during the Creed, just stay there. We'll send a search party after the 10:30 service.

2. The Fashion Police

Easter is the day we see the full spectrum of millinery. We have everything from the "Subtle Fascinator" to the "Hat So Large It Has Its Own Postcode." If the person in front of you is wearing a hat that looks like a literal bird's nest, consider it a visual aid for the "New Life" of Easter.

3. The "Hallelujah" High-Note

During The Easter hymns, there is always one person in the congregation who decides to go for the "Descant of Destiny." While we applaud the enthusiasm, please remember that the stained glass is historic and very expensive to replace. Aim for "Joyful Noise," not "Sonic Boom!"

4. The Pew-Swap Protocol

To our regulars: Yes, someone is sitting in "your" pew. No, they didn't do it to spite you. They are likely a visitor (Christmas and Easter) who thinks that cushioned seat near the radiator is public domain. Instead of the "Anglican Stare," give them a "Resurrection Smile." Who knows? If we're nice enough, they might come back for Pentecost (the day we set things on fire—spiritually speaking).

In all seriousness, it is wonderful to see everyone. Whether you are here every week or haven't been since the last time someone wore a bonnet, we are glad you're here.

The tomb is empty, the sun is shining (hopefully), and the church and churchyard are currently housing enough chocolate to power a small village for a month.

He is Risen! (And the coffee, not to mention Easter eggs are waiting.)

BIBLE READINGS

Acts 10:34-43

Gentiles Hear the Good News

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, ³⁵ but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶ You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. ³⁷ That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. ³⁹ We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; ⁴⁰ but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, ⁴¹ not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Matthew 28.1-10

The Resurrection of Jesus

²⁸ After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ² And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. ⁴ For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. ⁵ But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him." This is my message for you.' ⁸ So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ Suddenly Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings!' And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.'
