REFLECTION FROM THE RECTORY

As we enter June, and the summer season, the landscape around us shifts into vibrant shades of green. The days are at their longest, the heat builds, and if you are like me you are hoping for dramatic thunderstorms when the warmth invariably dissipates. In the Church calendar, we have crossed the threshold into Ordinary Time - a long season represented by the colour green on our altars and vestments. This is far from accidental; green is the colour of life, vitality, and spiritual cultivation. Summer is not merely a change in the weather; it is an invitation to realign our spiritual rhythms. In Mark 6, after a intense period of ministry, Jesus tells his exhausted disciples: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Jesus recognized that human bodies and minds have limitations. Rest is not a luxury; it is a form of spiritual stewardship. Whether we are traveling away this summer or enjoying a quieter pace at home, we can look for opportunities to dwell in the presence of God. Plants grow in the summer because their roots go deep into the soil to find water. To stay spiritually vibrant this season, we need to remain rooted in him.

A Prayer for the Summer Months:
Father of Light, Creator of the Seasons, Thank You for the warmth of the sun and the beauty of this summer. As the earth brings forth its harvest, cultivate the soil of our hearts. Grant us rest that restores us, paths that renew us, and eyes that see Your goodness in every long, bright day.

BIBLE READINGS

Genesis 12.1-9

The Call of Abram

12 Now the Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. 2 I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

4 So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. 5 Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, 6 Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. 7 Then the Lord appeared to Abram, and said, 'To your offspring I will give this land.' So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him. 8 From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the Lord and invoked the name of the Lord. 9 And Abram journeyed on by stages towards the Negeb.

Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

The Calling of Matthew

9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.'

And he got up and followed him. 10 And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?' 12 But when he heard this, he said, 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 13 Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.'

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

18 While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' 19 And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. 20 Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, 21 for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' 22 Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. 23 When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, 24 he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. 25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. 26 And the report of this spread throughout that district.
