REFLECTION FROM THE RECTORY

Can you believe we are already at the final Sunday of June? We have officially reached the halfway point of 2026. The sultry days of summer are long and filled with light, the school year is racing toward its finish line, and many of us are starting to look forward to a change of pace.

In our church calendar, we are settling into the steady green months of Ordinary Time. This season isn't about flashy events; it's focused on deep rooting and quiet, everyday growth.

As the routines of the spring term give way to summer schedules, our regular habits can easily get disrupted. Here are two simple ways to feed our faith as we head into July:

First - Take a Mid-Year 'Audit': Use one of these long, warm evenings to look back over the first half of this year. Where have you seen God moving? What are you most grateful for? What worries do you need to hand over to him today?

Second - Practice a 'Holy Pause': Summertime can bring some relief from busy schedules and hectic deadlines. So make space this week for just ten minutes of intentional quiet outside. Step away from the screens, soak in the beauty of creation, and remind yourself that you are loved for who you are, not just what you accomplish.

A Prayer

Lord of the seasons, thank You for bringing us safely to the midpoint of this year. As the summer unfolds, protect our parish families, refresh our tired spirits, and help us to find your peace in the bright days ahead.

BIBLE READINGS

Genesis 22: 1-18

The Command to Sacrifice Isaac

22 After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' 2 He said, 'Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt-offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.' 3 So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt-offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. 4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. 5 Then Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.' 6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. 7 Isaac said to his father Abraham, 'Father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?' 8 Abraham said, 'God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son.' So the two of them walked on together. 9 When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. 10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. 11 But the angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.'

12 He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.'

13 And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt-offering instead of his son. 14 So Abraham called that place 'The Lord will provide'; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of the Lord it shall be provided.'

15 The angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time from heaven, 16 and said, 'By myself I have sworn, says the Lord: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, 17 I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies, 18 and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.'

Matthew 10: 40 -42

Rewards

40 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. 41 Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; 42 and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'
